

All Star Complimentary Weekend Pass

Hello All Star dancers! Thank you for your interest in attending the Atlanta Swing Classic, held September 27-October 1, 2018, in Atlanta, GA USA.

The Atlanta Swing Dancers Club, PJ Turner, and I (Alan Annicella) invite you to join us at the Atlanta Swing Classic. The Atlanta Swing Classic offers big event amenities while keeping the small and friendly event feel. The event has been designed so you will find benefit as a dancer, no matter if you are attending for the workshops, competitions, or social dancing! Plus, the event hotel is an easy 18 minute, $3.50 public transit commute from the airport.

We are offering dancers that qualify to compete as an All Star in a World Swing Dance Council Jack & Jill a free weekend pass. We are offering this complimentary pass as a small token of our appreciation for all of the time, resources, and energy that you have invested in your dance and the west coast swing community.

What we ask in return for the complimentary pass is:

- Enter the All Star Jack & Jill,
- Participate in the one-hour Newcomer Track mixer, and
- Be an ASC Dance Ambassador for one-hour on Friday and Saturday nights.
  - o For the hour leading up to the evening contest, you, as an Ambassador, would ask people to dance, focusing on asking those that did not dance the last dance. We ask that you not dance with each other. Also, all Ambassadors will receive apparel to indicate that you are solely asking people to dance.

The Atlanta Swing Classic offers unique workshops, various social competitions, and hours upon hours of social dancing that starts early all four nights. Items of note:
